Medicaid Planning Services

Many Floridians are concerned about long term care in their later years in life. Their family and hard earned assets are tangible items that they want to be protected and passed on to their next generation of loved ones:

- Planning & Preparing. While planning for the challenges of long-term care, it is comforting to know that there is a legal team working on your behalf that will assist you every step of the way in the process of qualifying for services and will employ all the legal strategies and tools necessary to achieve the desired out-come possible.
- Services & Experience. It is important to know that there are services that are tailored to meeting the specific needs of your particular situation as related to estate planning and long-term care. You need a competent attorney who is focused on providing you with measurable and timely results that you can depend on with the experience.

Services provided:

- Medicaid Planning
- Advance Directives
- Veterans Pensions
- Durable Power of Attorney
- Health Care Surrogate
- Estate Planning
- Disability
- Last Will & Testament
- Living Will
- Trust

Professional Representation

Individuals who apply for Medicaid may be DENIED when applying on their own. Appeals to a denial often require a hearing. Professional attorney advice and assistance may help avoid costly denials. If a hearing is needed, an attorney representation is advised.

Commitment & Accountability

Our team of professionals are committed to our clients. We understand the struggle of working through the process of planning for the future and many of the unexpected long term care medical needs associated with the continuum of care cycle. We are also available to answer your questions and address any concerns related to the application process.

The Florida Supreme Court declared that Florida Medicaid planning services must only be performed by a licensed attorney by the Florida Bar. It is essential that you consult with a Florida Licensed attorney in order to ensure that proper representation is provided to individuals applying for Florida Medicaid.

At Shawn R.H. Smith Law Firm, the practice of law is executed with the highest integrity and maintained at the highest ethical standards. We are committed to working collaboratively with clients and their families to minimize long term expenses by creating personal estate plans and strategies that provide peace of mind.
